...2021 MOCK NOTIFICATION SLIP: New Mock Notification Slips Ready For Printing

As disclosed earlier, the optional mock notification slip can be printed from anywhere that candidates find convenient provided they have internet access.

To print the slip, candidates are to visit https://www.jamb.gov.ng then click on e-facility and print their slips. The slip contains the candidates' details such as registration number and, most importantly, the centre at which they are to sit the examination within their chosen examination town and the expected time to be at the centre.

Candidates need to print their slips and study the contents to know the location of their centres as some candidates do not read the instructions on their slips only for them to be looking for the name of their examination town instead of their examination centre on the day of the exercise.

"DON'T GIVE IN TO EXTORTION" - JAMB WARNS PARENTS

t has come to the knowledge of the Joint Admissions and Matriculation Board (JAMB) that some elite schools are using the name of the Board to extort huge sums of money from parents under the guise of registering for the Board's processes or that the Board has ordered such payments.

The Board wishes to state clearly that, unlike the West African Examination Council (WAEC), National Examination Council (NECO), etc., the Unified Tertiary Matriculation Examination (UTME) and Direct Entry (DE) Registration and Examination exercises are not schoolbased. As such, schools have no role whatsoever in these operational processes of the Board. This is because these exercises require only the participation and engagement of individual candidates.

Consequently, schools that are using the name of the Board to swindle parents of humongous sums of money for registration or other services are hereby warned to desist forthwith. They may wish to employ other means to extort gullible parents but certainly, it should not be at the expense of the Board or its processes. This information became necessary following the discovery of series of data mutilation occasioned by the unwholesome practice of group processing of registration, among others. Parents are to note that the cost of the UTME forms (ePINs) remains N3500 and N500 for the reading text and nothing more. Parents are to ensure that their children register for the UTME individually and not as a group.

In addition, the CBT centres where the candidate's register have been directed not to charge above N700 as their service charge.

The Board took a proactive approach to extend the registration exercise by two weeks to address the challenges of candidates trying to register for the 2021 UTME/DE Examination.

Oneida, a former Vice-Chancellor of the Michael Okpara University of Agriculture Umudike explained that though the assignment was not an inquisition, it was imperative to streamline things in the universities to accomplish their goals as mandated by the laws.

DAILY TRUST, THURSDAY, MAY 20, 2021-

Senate Gives NECO 24hrs to Provide Receipt for N7.2bn Examination Materials: The Senate Committee on Public Accounts has directed the National Examination Council (NECO) to present, within 24 hours, store receipts for N7.2billion it paid for examination materials between January and June 2017 or be ready to refund the N7.2 billion to the Federal Government's coffers.

The Committee, chaired by Senator Matthew Urhoghide, gave the directive following its consideration of a query raised to that effect by the Office of the Auditor-General of the Federation, in its 2017 report.

The Registrar of NECO, Professor Godswill Obioma, in his response to the query when he appeared before the Committee in Abuja, claimed that NECO examination materials are sensitive items that are kept and closely guarded to avoid leakages.

The Registrar, Professor Obioma, however, enjoined the committee to state the penalty since he was not the Registrar of NECO in 2017 when the purchases were made.

NATION, FRIDAY, MAY 21, 2021-No Plan to Scrap Some Varsity Undergraduate Programmes Says Okebukola: Chairman, Universities Education Curriculum Review Committee, Prof. Peter Okebukola, has said there was no plan to scrap any education programme being run in Nigerian universities as wrongly being speculated in some quarters. He described the rumour as not only fake news but also wishful thinking of some mischief-makers.

The former Executive Secretary of National Universities Commission, NUC, and the Chairman, Governing Council of the National Open University of Nigerian, NOUN was reacting to claims by some members of the Nigerian Academy of Education that "The universities education curriculum review committee, which headed by Prof. Peter Okebukola, is proposing the scrapping of some university undergraduate programmes like Educational Administration & Planning (or Educational Management); Guidance and Counseling and Early Childhood Education/Primary Education, despite the merits of the programmes".

Prof. Okebukola declared that rather than scrapping, the current programmes in Education would be maintained and strengthened. Accordingly, he urged members of the public to ignore the unsubstantiated rumour. "Instead, new programmes being proposed for Education would respond to the needs of our great country and for teachers who are nationally relevant and globally competitive. ...Communiqué Of The Joint Admissions And Matriculation Board Meeting With Stakeholders On The Ongoing 2021 UTME/DE Registration

Exercise, At Sheraton Hotels, Abuja From May 14-15, 2021

Service Providers

3. In his briefing at the meeting, the Registrar of JAMB, Prof. Is-haq Olanrewaju Oloyede, thanked the attendees for honouring the invitation to the meeting. He said the interface was to identify the challenges that had impeded the registration process and proffer workable solutions to the bottlenecks in the interest of the teeming number of candidates intending to pursue further studies in institutions of higher learning.

4. The Registrar reminded stakeholders that the introduction of National Identification Number (NIN) in 2020 as a registration requirement for UTME/DE is by law. This was however suspended for registration because of certain circumstances. In 2021 exercise the Board embrace the policy following the directive from the Federal Government. This year, however, the requirement for NIN is being enforced fully and field reports have shown a marked improvement in NIMC enrolment and other critical processes.

5. Contrary to the Board's projection of about two million candidates, 1,134,424 candidates (UTME+DE) have so far been registered.

6. Stakeholders undertook on-the-spot assessment of registration process at some Computer Based Test centres (CBTs), NIMC registration enrolment centres and Telco office in the Federal Capital Territory, Abuja, where they interacted with prospective candidates and CBT Centre operators.

7. After exhaustive deliberations, stakeholders identified in the following categories, the principal challenges that had delayed registration:

- i. Candidates' non-compliance with registration requirements
 - Using wrong format to generate profile code while sending NIN to the Board's USSD code (55019)
 - Input of incomplete or wrong NIN to generate profile code
 - Using an already used cell phone number to generate another profile code

Use of special packages such as postpaid, promo bundles, Do Not Disturbed (DND) which block delivery of profile code to the candidates

- Last-minute rush for NIN enrolment by prospective candidates
- ii. CBT Centres' violation of registration procedures
- Use of inadequate registration points such as only one or two instead of approved minimum of ten (10)
- Warehousing of candidates by prior collection of registration fee thereby constraining the candidates from registering at other available centres.
- iii. Inadequacies of NIMC Accredited Enrolment Centres.
 - Extortion of enrollees by imposing charges for what ought to be free enrolment (since Government pays for it)
 - Compelling enrollees to procure unnecessary services such as lamination, petrol, etc)
 - Use of untrained and unauthorised personnel to register candidates
- iv. Telcos and Digital Service Providers' poor service delivery
- Connectivity failure
- Non-reimbursement for undelivered codes generated
- Malfunctioning of software
- Inadequate capacity
- v. NIMC-Hitches
 - Missing data
 - Connection errors
 - Delay in verification
 - Wrong responses
 - Large number of prospective enrolees in NIMC owned centres
- 8. RESOLUTIONS

DESIROUS of affording prospective candidates more time to complete their registration for the 2021 UTME/DE, which was expected to end on Saturday, May 15, 2021, Stakeholders recommended a twoweek extension for registration, to now end on May 29, 2021. The extension is contingent upon stakeholders' firm commitment to deliver on their respective responsibilities.

Accordingly, the 2021 Mock UTME earlier scheduled for 20th May, 2021 will now hold on June 3, 2021 while the main UTME will hold from June 19 – July 3, 2021.

- ii. JAMB will dispatch monitoring teams to all States of the Federation and the FCT during the extension period.
- iii. JAMB hereby directs CBT Centres to stop selling ePINs and flouting this directive would attract appropriate sanctions.
- iv. No CBT centre should collect money for ePIN and registration fees simultaneously. No CBT centre should collect registration fee from candidates more than they can register in a day. This is to avoid warehousing of candidates.
- v. Stakeholders reiterated the prohibition of group registration by any school or group for candidates. Any CBT centre that violates the instruction, would be delisted. Such schools hide under JAMB's exercise to extort their own students and others.

vi. CBT centres are directed to open all twenty (20) allowable registration points to, ease congestion at the centres.

- vii. Candidates for Direct Entry are reminded that, while procuring their ePIN, they should specify their category of admission. However, where a DE candidate mistakenly purchases an ePIN for UTME, the selling point is hereby directed to rectify the error by swapping the ePIN to DE at no further cost to the candidate.
- viii. Digital Service Providers are encouraged to expand their facilities, including provision of redundancy links.

ix. NIMC pledged to give priority attention to UTME/DE prospective candidates at the enrolment centres across the country.

- x. NIMC promises to deploy more hands and facilities to cope with the large number of prospective candidates.
- xi. NIMC requested all prospective candidates, JAMB-ad hoc and fulltime staff who have not received a response from 55019 to send their Tracking ID or NIN to nimc-Contal in Pg 15
