COVID-19-INDUCED MAJOR INNOVATIONS IN JAMB (1)

In line with extant guidelines relating to physical/social distancing and other measures aimed at mitigating the spread of COVID-19 as issued by relevant agencies, the Joint Admissions and Matriculation Board has come up with a number of major innovations to proactively protect both staff and clients, particularly tertiary education candidates at its various centres, while rendering seamless services to the public.

These innovations which are critical to current operational imperatives include: the Appointment Booking- Platform which requires a candidate to secure an online appointment before visiting the centres for any service to avoid crowd; the One-Time Password(OTP) which temporarily replaces biometric verification via fingerprints; the installation of Disinfectant Tunnel Sprayers at the entrances to all offices and centres of the Board to disinfect both staff and the public, and the introduction of SMA(R)T phone numbers for all the Board's offices and Professional Test Centres(PTC) across the country.

Four of the innovations are ready to be rolled out; the appointment booking-platform, the One Time Password, the Disinfectant Tunnel Sprayers and the SMA(R)T phone numbers. However the Board is rolling-out the first of the innovations which is the SMA(R)T phone numbers in this edition of the bulletin and would roll-out the others in subsequent editions.

As you may be aware, SMA(R)T phone numbers popularly called "vanity numbers" in other climes are very easy to remember. SMA(R)T (Vanity) numbers are artificial numbers based on the letters of the beneficial owner of the number. The letters in the name of the owner are keyed once wherever they occur on the phone pad. For example, JAMB which is the name of the beneficiary in this instance would apart from 0700 which is the SMA(R)T-code in Nigeria (for non-toll-free) have "J" of JAMB on key "5", "A" on key "2", "M" on "6" and "B" on

The results which had earlier been made available through text to candidates on request by them but are now requesting for a printed version can now be printed free from the Board website: www.jamb.gov.ng.

All a candidate needs to do after visiting the site is to click on QUICK LINKS, then on "E-Facility" where the candidate would be required to provide his/her registration details and the result notification slip would be displayed for printing.

The printing of the result notification slip is

2020 ADMISSIONS: JAMB HOLDS POLICY MEETING JUNE 16

The Joint Admissions and Matriculation Board has scheduled the 2020 Policy Meeting of all tertiary institutions for 16th June, 2020. The Policy Meeting is to be chaired by the Hon. Minister of Education with all Heads of Tertiary Institutions in attendance.

The 2020 Policy Meeting is peculiar as it will go down in history as the first Policy Meeting that will be holding online owing to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

It would be recalled that part of the protocols put in place by government to curb the spread of COVID-19 requires that no gathering of persons exceeds prescribed numbers.

Compliance with this directive has become imperative as no fewer than 4000 Heads of Tertiary Institutions comprising degree, diploma, NCE and NID-awarding institutions and other stakeholders would normally be expected to congregate at a location but because of extant protocols, would now be expected to participate in the virtual meeting.

The modalities for the meeting would entail the Board issuing only one access code to each participating institution to join the meeting. This access code is not to be shared or given to unauthorized persons. However, other critical stakeholders within the institutions like the Registrars, Admissions Officers can cluster around a big screen in a location to attend the meeting using the unique

Consequently, all SMA(R)T JAMB numbers would include 5262. Therefore all JAMB numbers in different offices are unified with 0700-5(J)2(A)6(M)2(B) before the 3 or 4 other numbers for the state or centre. This would make it easy for a candidate to remember the constant -0700-5262.

These dedicated numbers are meant to facilitate round-the-clock access to JAMB services. All JAMB SMA(R)T phone lines would commence with '0700', followed by "JAMB" and then the first three letters of each State with the exception of one or two States that did not follow the sequence of the first three letters. For instance, Abia State would have '0700-JAMB-ABI' as its phone number. Where a State Office has a subsidiary, the letter of that subsidiary office would be captured to yield, for example, '0700-JAMB-BAO' to indicate JAMB Bayelsa State Office, Otuoke Centre, as opposed to '0700-JAMB-BAY' for the parent Office. However, to avoid clashes in interpreting the numbers, a few of the phone numbers of some subsidiary offices did not start with the first letter of their towns. The Board is mindful of the fact that the normal eleven digit numbers are difficult to memorize but when it comes to SMA(R)T numbers, all a candidate needs to do is simply to add the last three letters of the State Capital of his choice to '0700-JAMB'.

Members of the public are to note that these phone lines, while not toll-free, would be accessible on all networks.

HOW TO DIAL THE SMA(R)T NUMBERS:

To call any of the numbers, all a candidate needs to do to attain the alphabets would be to simply dial, just once, the corresponding letters on the numeric keys. For instance, '5' would yield 'J', 'K' and 'L' etc. Each number on the numeric phone key (from 2 to 9) would bear the letters under it. Note that the letters dialed will be displayed as digits e.g:

0700-JAMB- ABI shall display as 07005262224 when dialed from the numeric phone keys.

WHY ARE WE DOING THIS?

The Board, ever conscious of its social responsibility to the public, has put these preventive health strategies in place as part of the overall measures taken to reduce physical/social distancing in compliance with prevailing protocols on COVID-19.

Below are the SMA(R)T numbers of the offices and PTC centres.

... "You Can Print Your Result Notification Now"- JAMB Tells Candidates

free as it is different from the original result slips that comes with the candidate's picture.

Candidates can print their result notification slip anywhere in the country even from the comfort of their homes once there is internet access.

The Board has, until now, restricted the printing of result notification slips and had made it available to candidates only through SMS to avoid anxiety on the part of candidates as well as prevent clustering at cybercafes with the attendant risk of COVID-19 contagion all in a bid to print result notifications.

This new development, however, is predicated on the gradual easing of the lockdown and resumption of economic activities in most parts of the country.

The Board wishes to advise candidates to be wary of fraudulent elements masquerading as JAMB agents stating that it has not mandated any person or group to do the printing on behalf of the Board. Candidates are to note also that delegating this responsibility to third parties could result in wilful manipulation of their results.

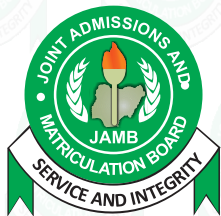

Recall that last year some candidates who abused this privilege by attempting to manipulate their scores were caught and are currently serving various jail terms.

Candidates are advised to note that any attempt to forge the slip would attract stiff sanctions.

The decentralization of printing of result notification slips was done mainly to comply with the directives of the NCDC and other relevant agencies on social distancing. It is against this background that the Board is urging candidates to note and adhere strictly to other precautionary health measures such as wearing of face masks, washing of hands, among others, in order to mitigate the spread of the virus.
